2009 classes were so popular; Eric is doing another 5 class series in March. Come explore the excitement with students who share in Eric's passion for painting. This class series is for the artist looking to develop their skills to the next level.

Eric will demonstrate on all aspects of how to properly construct a painting, discuss materials and techniques, and focus on classical elements of design. This is an atmosphere guided by Eric's individual critiques.

You do not want to miss this experience. These are the only classes held in 2010!

Eric Wiegardt has taught his unique painting techniques to over 3,000 students both in the US and internationally.

Graduate of American Academy of Art, Chicago, IL

Note: No substitution days are available. Full refund for cancellations up to one week prior to March 3rd. Eric reserves the right to cancel this series if needed. In that event, all students will receive full refunds.*
